About GSV

Gati Shakti Vishwavidyalaya (GSV) is a Central University and a pioneer in the domain of Transport and Logistics education in India. Founded in 2022 by the Act of Parliament, the GSV subsumes the previously-existing National Rail and Transportation Institute (NRTI).

The GSV is established with a unique mandate to create a resource pool of best-in-class professionals for the entire transportation sector across technology, management and policy comprising multidisciplinary teaching, executive training and research. The GSV students will be uniquely qualified to significantly contribute in the transportation-related industries and crucially cater to the rising demands of the global economic order.

GSV follows a demand-driven curriculum to meet the industry needs of the transportation sector with an interdisciplinary pedagogical approach facilitated by advanced technologies, high-quality faculty with global exposure and leveraging state of the art infrastructure of Centralized Training Institutes (CTIs) of Indian Railways.

Our Vision and Mission

1.1 Vision: Innovation-led, Industry-driven University for creating, assimilating and imparting excellence of knowledge and actions accelerating development in the transport and logistics sectors

"Best in the world" futuristic education and research built on credibility, rigor and relevance.

1.2  Effective collaboration with industry and stakeholders for GSV to be the "Epicenter" of the transport and logistics ecosystem.

Imbibe and internalize professional work ethics and culture to foster lifelong learning paradigms for a developed India.

1.4 Values

Gati Shakti Vishwavidyalaya upholds the values of academic excellence, nation building, compassion and environmental responsibility.

- Commitment to innovation and academic excellence - challenge the status quo through innovation, curiosity and critical thinking to provide indigenous solutions for Indian problems.
- Dedication to nation building - build a better mobilized India with a sense of purpose, through a multidisciplinary and research-led approach to problem solving, which contributes to economic and social growth.
- Compassion towards all individuals and society - uphold a sense of fairness and equity for all members of society, leading by example and helping others succeed; be committed to self-discovery and purpose. Responsibility towards the environment - be open to ideas and have empathy towards the environment and the planet, implementing ideas with environmental sustainability in mind.

2 ACADEMIC RULES

Registration and Fee Payment: Every registered student must pay the stipulated fees in full before the specified deadlines. In the event that a student does not make these payments, he/she can be de-registered from all courses and his/her name can be struck off from the rolls.

2.1 Attendance

2.1.1 It is mandatory for the students to attend all classes. Course-wise attendance records of all students will be maintained and will have a bearing on the grades/promotion.

2.1.2 The Course Coordinator will announce the class policy on attendance with respect to grading etc., at the beginning of the term. This shall be done keeping in mind the importance of classroom learning in the teaching-learning process. Once the class attendance policy has been made clear to the students registered for the course, the Course Coordinator will implement the same in totality.

2.1.3. A Course Coordinator may choose any one or more of the following as attendance policy.

(i) The Course Coordinator can assign 10% of the total marks to surprise quiz(es).

(ii) If attendance of the student is greater than 90%, result of the best two/three quizzes will be considered, else average of all quizzes will be considered.

(iii) The Course Coordinator can allocate specific marks for participation in discussions in the class on a regular basis.

(iv) If a student's attendance is less than 75%, he/she will be awarded one grade lower than the actual grade that he/she has earned. For example, a student who has got "B" grade but has attendance deficiency (less than 75%) will be awarded "C" grade.

(v) A student cannot get Pass grade for an audit course if his/her attendance is less than 75%. The Course Coordinator can adopt any other attendance policy provided the policy is approved by the competent authority.

(vi) If a student remains absent without sanctioned leave for more than 25% of the classes, then the course instructor may recommend deregistration of the student from the course to the Head of Department or Vice Chancellor. If accepted, the student will not be graded or he/she will receive a W grade for the course.

2.1.4 Other Implications of Attendance Deficiency

- i. If a student's attendance is less than 75% in more than two courses without any valid reason during a Term, he/she is liable to be issued warning and put under academic probation. If this is repeated, the matter is liable to be referred to the Vice Chancellor for action which could even result in expulsion.
- ii. If a student's attendance is less than 75% in any course or CGPA is less than 7.0, then he/she is liable to be barred from holding any position of responsibility in the Class/Hostel/University.

2.2 Use of Unfair Means in Examinations

2.2.1 If the student is found to be indulged in unfair means or misconduct during the examination, his/her case shall be dealt as per the "Regulations relating to Unfair Means and Malpractice/ Misconduct during Examinations". The extract of the relevant portions of the Regulation is reproduced in below for the information of all concerned.

The use of dishonest or unfair means in the examination includes but is not limited to:

- 2.2.6 A student is found requesting and using a writer by submitting false/fraudulent evidence;
- 2.2.7 If the student violates the norms of disciplined behaviour or indulges in violent behaviour inside or outside the examination hall by act or acts such as:
- Obstructing the process of examination in any way or instigating other students, or
 - Abusing/assaulting the Invigilator/any other person appointed to conduct the Examination or threatening the staff, or
 - Carrying and/or using offensive tools/weapons for intimidation/causing injuries, or
 - Any other act/acts similar in nature to those mentioned under this category;
- 2.2.8 If the candidate is caught using unfair means in the examination and makes an attempt to influence the authorized person for conduct of examination for seeking his/her favour or brings personal pressure.
- 2.2.9 If the candidate makes an attempt to influence the Invigilator or Officer in Charge for not reporting the case or the examiner concerned for seeking his/her favours either by bribing, hiding, currency notes in the answer books or threatens any of the authorized officers for conduct of examination.
- 2.2.10 No candidate shall make use of any dishonest or unfair means or indulge in disorderly conduct in the examination.
- 2.2.11 In the cases involving misconduct, the student concerned can be expelled from the examination venue with the approval of the Invigilator or an Officer in Charge of the conduct of examination, and the matter describing the incident will be reported to the Registrar.
- 2.2.12 In the cases involving malpractice and use of unfair means, the Invigilator or an Officer in Charge of the conduct of examination shall seize the answer books and all incriminating material/evidence from the candidate, and then obtain a written statement, duly signed by the candidate. Invigilator or Officer in Charge may issue a new answer book and allow the student to continue to write his/her answers for the remaining period of that examination. The Invigilator or an Officer in Charge of the conduct of examination shall forward both the answer books, along with his/her report to the Registrar with all relevant documents on the same day.
- 2.2.13 In case the student refuses to make a written statement explaining his/her conduct, the fact of his/her refusal shall be recorded by the Invigilator or an Officer in Charge of the conduct of examination.
- 2.2.14 Cases adopting unfair means in an examination shall be dealt with by the Registrar or referred to committee on prevention of examination malpractices.
- 2.2.15 A student reported for any of the acts of Unfair Means and Malpractice/Misconduct during examinations may be allowed to appear in subsequent examinations of that term. However, in case the same student is again found guilty of indulging in misconduct or malpractice for the second time during any of the subsequent examinations of that term or in any subsequent term during the programme, he will be expelled from all remaining examinations of that term after taking appropriate action for the second act of misconduct/malpractice and the result of all the examinations of all the courses of the concerned term will be cancelled. The student has to redo all the courses of the respective term as and when offered by the University.

- 2.2.16 In case a student is found guilty of indulging in misconduct or malpractice for the third time during any of the subsequent examinations he will be compulsorily expelled from the University.
- 2.2.17 The cases of impersonification, violence or intimidation involving outsiders shall immediately be reported to the Invigilator or the Officer in Charge and action as per the concerned law including filing a police complaint will be taken.
- 2.2.18 The penalty in each case would depend on the circumstances of that case, and examination of all the relevant documents, statements and evidence. The punishment may vary from issuing warning, informing the parents, cancellation of the results of all examinations of the concerned course, cancellation of the results of all the examinations of all the courses of concerned term, expelling from the University, initiate criminal proceeding including filing FIR against the student/person involved in this incident or exonerating him/her from the charges.

2.3 Plagiarism

- (vi) Putting someone else's ideas without proper citation.
- (vii) Paraphrasing
- (viii) Self-plagiarism – reproducing/publishing one's own published work in part or whole without referring to earlier published work.

Notwithstanding anything containing clause (i) to (viii) above, any other activity falling under the ambit of academic dishonesty may also be covered under plagiarism. Any violation of the above rules will be dealt strictly as per the norms of the University.

3.0 ANTI RAGGING REGULATIONS/POLICY

3.1. As per the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court and UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions – 2009 ragging has inter-alia been defined as any conduct by any student/students whether by words spoken or written or an act which has an effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student or indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or creates fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student or forcing a student to do an act which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame or torment or embarrassment so as to affect the physique or psyche of a fresher or any other student, showing of power, authority or superiority by a student to any fresher or any other student. Collective gathering of students with any form of excuse and interviewing the freshers will also be treated as an act of ragging. Where the persons committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the University shall resort to collective punishment.

3.2. The above said UGC Regulation also provides for punishment to the student found guilty of ragging. These punishments include suspension from attending classes, withholding/ withdrawing scholarship, debarring from appearing in the test/examination, withholding results, cancellation of admission, rustication from the University for certain period and expulsion from the University. Besides, the student found guilty of ragging shall also be liable to face charges under the Indian Penal Law if the nature and gravity of the act is considered to come under the Penal laws.

3.3. Students are warned not to indulge in any act of ragging in the University during their stay at the University. Indulgence in any such act(s) shall liable for punishment that may jeopardize their careers also.

3.4 Freshers or any other student(s), whether being victims or witnesses, in any incident of ragging, are encouraged to report such occurrence, and the identity of such informants shall be protected and shall not be subject to any adverse consequence only for the reason for having reported such incidents.

4.0 CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

4.1 Conduct & Discipline

Every student is required to observe discipline and decent behaviour both inside and outside the campus and not to indulge in any activity which may affect the reputation of the University. The following acts of omission and/or commission shall constitute gross violation of the code of conduct and are liable to invoke disciplinary measures:

4.1.1 Ragging: GSV has a zero tolerance policy towards ragging. Ragging is strictly prohibited inside and outside the University campus. Ragging is a criminal and non-bailable offence as per the Indian laws. The University strictly follows the guidelines on ragging issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and University Grants Commission (UGC). For details refer Clause 3.2 mentioned below.

4.1.2 Sexual Harassment: GSV has a zero-tolerance policy against sexual harassment, which is widely condemned as a form of human rights violation, an infringement on life and liberty and a grave form of gender-based discrimination. Sexual harassment of any level is a punishable offence.
